Waterford Township Clerk

BLOCK PARTY PERMITS

Applicant provides written request and map to Clerk, including all details of event, what will be used to close the road(s). There is no fee. Barricades must be portable to allow for emergency vehicle access.

Clerk sends a copy to Police and Fire Departments for their approval.

Once Police and Fire have approved, it goes to the Board for approval.

If a state or county road will be closed, Clerk applies for a permit on behalf of the applicant. They will notify us if they have any objection. (Not necessary for residential streets.)

Permit is prepared and mailed to applicant, good for the day of event only.
